

Ally Stone

A leader in the hospitality industry for over 15 years, Ally has built over 15 successful businesses. Her leadership style is based on taking care of people by “Leading from the Heart”. This unique style of leadership has created a culture in her organization that is now admired and emulated by many.

Ally has worked with hundreds of leaders from all levels of organizations. For over ten years, she has developed and facilitated countless workshops and seminars geared specifically towards the journey of a “Heart Centered Leader” including:

- Navigating Change and Uncertainty: Why leadership presence is more important now than ever.
- Transcendent Leadership: How leaders can inspire and change lives
- Finding the Right Fit: Why hiring is key to long term success
- Defining Culture and Building Connected Teams
- The Heart of Caring Leadership

Ally is now aligned with David Irvine to produce a message of Authenticity in Leadership. She complements David’s work by bringing her diverse experience of working and developing leaders. Together David and Ally deliver deeply engaging, impactful sessions for leaders.

Ally is also a certified meditation teacher who spends time discovering the spaces between her thoughts. She loves yoga, biking, hiking and spending time with her two dogs. She lives in Edmonton, Alberta with Chris, her husband of 20 years.
